

Biography

Chris Parker MBE MA CMgr FICM

Founding Director, Cyberplus Ltd

Chris Parker MBE is Founding Director of Cyberplus Ltd who provide novel, confidential, cyber security consultancy. Cyberplus excel at cyber risk identification, mitigation and reduction. Chris leads the Executive Cyber Leadership and Human Risk Mitigation programmes at Cyberplus. The company serves Public Sector, Insurance and Commercial clients.

Chris founded Charmogen consultancy group in 2011 and was previously Chief Operating Officer of Terraseis, an international, ethical, oil and gas exploration company, leading $100M of success in Iraq and the Africa. Chris previously worked in mega-projects in construction, notably as Project Director for the $1.3B Infrastructure at the famous Burj Khalifa in Dubai for Hyder plc having been their Operations Director in London. Prior to that Chris served in the British Infantry, completing 9 combat and operational tours.

Chris has a master's degree in Technology from Cranfield University and is a Chartered Manager (CMI). He is a well-known, media commentator on the cyber security and strategic issues on BBC News, Sky News and other media agencies.