

Bytes update: Veritas and Symantec

Upcoming Veritas and Symantec Software Audits

With the recent split between Symantec and Veritas, both companies have increased activity on making sure that their customer base is fully compliant. They have an internal objective of contacting every customer across EMEA and started running formal audit processes as of Q3 2015. If you have not been contacted already you are likely to in the near future.

We therefore urge you to take proactive action to review your current Symantec/Veritas estate including NetBack Up, BackUp Exec, Enterprise Vault, Infoscene and End Point Protection and Protection Suite Enterprise Edition.

Software Licensing is a core strength at Bytes and with the largest Software Asset Management team in the UK, our aim is always to reduce your software license exposure and cost.

With this in mind Bytes are offering a Free of Charge License Assessment that includes:-

- > A License Entitlement Statement
- > An Install Report for Symantec and Veritas A
- > Clear Summary of Your License Position

Benefits to you:

- > Reduce unnecessary installations
- > Re-engineer or consolidate your existing Symantec/Veritas Estate
- > Achieve the highest level of discounts available where required
- > Establish your compliance position
- > Compliance approval certificate

Bytes are one of a select few Platinum Partners in the UK and are therefore best placed to offer you the right advice to help you achieve the most advantageous deal for your business. We assure you that all of your information is treated in the strictest confidence.

By working together we can offer a rubber stamped letter on behalf of Symantec / Veritas that will prevent them auditing your business, in the region and products covered within your license assessment, for minimum term of 12 months.

To arrange an initial chat, simply email: symantec@bytes.co.uk or contact your Bytes account manager.
